Chairman's Message

Tattersall's Club Chairman Keith Moremon with Mighty Kingdom in its slashing Chelmsford win.

It is pleasing to report that our Tattersall's Plate Race Day on 8th September was a most successful day and shows the enthusiasm and spirit of your new Race Committee. For the first time Tattersall's Club have had a nine race program and the acceptances ensured the largest fields for a great many years. Also, attendance was up substantially and we have received many messages of congratulations on the success of the day. Now your Committee will devote all of its energy into assuring an improvement in our next meeting at Randwick on Tuesday, 1st January, 1980, to try to reverse the trend in recent years of the declining number of starters and attendance by race goers on this particular day.

Whilst the 'new look' program helped, there is no doubt that the success of the day was in no small part due to the support we received from owners and trainers, and particularly from the media, which followed a most enjoyable and well attended luncheon arranged in the Club on Monday, 27th August for the racing journalists of the press, radio and television.

Since the last issue of the magazine you will notice some changes in the Club in that the new wallpapering and painting on the 2nd floor has been completed, and in time when the area is re-carpeted, it should make a most attractive foyer and give a 'Club' atmosphere. The carpet tiles have been completed in the gymnasium on the 3rd floor and new equipment has been installed.

In the 4th Floor Dining Room a new Band has been engaged for Saturday nights and already members have appreciated the change.

With the completion of the swimming season on the 3rd floor, a presentation Dinner Dance has been arranged by the Swimming Club in the 1st Floor Club Room for Tuesday, 30th October. I am certain it will be a capacity crowd. The new season is already under way.

The first half year's trading results are to hand and I have to report that revenue showed a substantial increase over the same period for the previous year, but we are particularly pleased that the surplus for the period also increased, in spite of increases in overheads particularly salary and wages.

On Saturday 6th October I attended the B.A.T.C. meeting at Doomben Racecourse and was well looked after by old friends and Committeemen Claude Jacobs and Mr Justice 'Ned' Williams - also backed a few winners - I hope you all do likewise in the next few weeks.

On Tuesday 9th October I represented the Club as guest of honour at the New South Wales T.A.B. for the opening by the Minister for Sport & Recreation the Hon. K.G. Booth, M.P., of the new T.A.B. Telephone Betting Service. The Chairman Ron Auswild, OBE, spoke highly of his association with Tattersall's Club.

All the best.

K.H. MOREMON, Chairman.

TATTERSALL'S RACE DAY at Randwick provided exciting racing for Members.

Powerhouse sprinter Imposing ran the most impressive Epsom Handicap trial of the spring when he toyed with his rivals in the $15,000 Tattersall's Tramway Handicap, 1,400m, at Randwick.

Malcolm Johnston could hardly contain his enthusiasm when he snapped up the Epsom ride on the chestnut.

It is history now as Imposing went on to win the Epsom in brilliant style. Tattersall's race day at Randwick was a great success. Members were there in large numbers - many more than in past years. It was pleasing to see the support given to efforts by Chairman, Keith Moremon and Tattersall's Racing Committee of Bruce McHugh, Tony McSweeney and Norman Rogers, coupled with detail work by Secretary Norman Smith.

Member Mr David Morison won the first race of the day with Adopuios. Members sitting at his table at the luncheon were given the 'quiet tip'.

The Tattersall's Plate introduced this year, provided a thrilling finish. Jeune Fille just 'nosed out' Red Nose. Mighty Kingdom kept the Tattersall's Club flag flying high. Club Members Tom Heavener is part owner with Tom Smith and L. & J. Foyster. It was a clear cut win.

Another very popular member winner was Sir Clyde Kennedy, his horse Meriville at 12 to 1 won the Roman Consul Stakes. It was pleasing to see Len Plasto (owner of the famed Roman Consul) so active and taking pride and pleasure from the memory of his champion of yesteryear.

Member and trainer Pat Murray had success too. His charge - the highly rated Great Klaire won well. Pat trains this 4 year old mare for the Right Hon. The Lord Forres who enjoys racing - and Tattersall's Club.

We say thank you to Members Bart Cummings and Tom Smith who gave full support to this 'lead up' meeting to summer racing. Both members shared in the winning of races.

The luncheon staged at Randwick was a splendid function. Photos are included in this issue of the lunch and general activity of the day.

Mrs Keith Moremon with the assistance of committeemen's wives entertained members' wives and visitors at a ladies luncheon in the Queens stand.

Members are invited to apply for admission tickets for the two race days staged each year by Tattersall's Club. Free tickets to the Paddock are available for these Randwick Meeting - The next day will be conducted on New Year's Day 1980 - make a note now and if you would like to attend please advise the office at Tattersall's Club.

HONG KONG TOUR

Tattersall's Club is pleased to be associated with Astronaut Travel Service in presenting a great Asian Holiday.

The trip has many outstanding features.

Your attention is directed to the spread in this magazine on pages 12 and 13.

Tattersall's Club members will receive first preference in bookings.

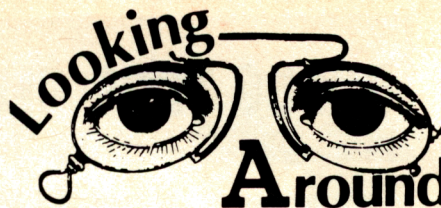

It is anticipated it will be very popular and it is suggested members act promptly in making reservations. It has great appeal for Racing enthusiasts as provision has been made for you to be a guest at the exciting Sha Tin Racecourse.

In addition for horse lovers, conducted tours of racing stables has been arranged.

It is believed to be the first time in the Club's history that three Chairmen (or ex-Chairmen) attended at the same time!

Results of the A.J.C. Committee Poll suggests country people write more letters than their city brothers. Counting showed only 50 per cent of all members answered their mail.

Three rural flavoured members topped the vote. It was a 'mudslinging' affair. I believe the target person was sitting member Jack Ingham. He has vast racing interest - and doesn't hide it. Knowledge of racing is invaluable to any committee.

HISTORY IN OLD SYDNEY TOWN

Had a reason to go to Sydney Town with friend novelist Michael Noonan - he was seeking colour and detail for a novel based on the early convict days. It was a real eye opener. Colourful costumed characters headed by the town crier ushered us through the settlement.

Soldiers convicts cottages buildings and the dreaded triangle - it's all there in authentic presentation. Live shows include Trial and flogging, raising the flags (with firing of muskets). History lives on - what a great way for the young to learn and the old to remember. The concept was the idea of Tattersall's member, Frank Fox.

MELBOURNE BY THE VITAMIN C

I go along with Melbourne doctor, Dr. Josef Goldbaum in his use of Vitamin C as a therapeutic drug. He says he had used mecorbate therapy - (in our language large doses of Vitamin C). He's reported success using it on some 900 patients. They were suffering mainly from allergies and viral skin and heart conditions. "Patients in all groups have gained some form of benefit - often dramatically." He said side effects were uncommon and mild at high doses. Even if it only gives relief from the common cold - it will be a giant step forward for mankind.

DUBBO TURF CLUB ON THE MOVE

The announcement recently of TAB distributions to Racing Clubs in N.S.W., proved a fitting tribute to The Dubbo Turf Club and to its outgoing President, Mr Jim Patterson, who after three years as President has retired.

The retirement is obligatory under the Club's constitution but with his usual enthusiasm Jim will not be lost to racing.

Jim, who has accepted the Chairmanship of Trustees for the local racecourse, has been a member of Tattersall's Club for twenty years.

Dubbo Club for the year ended June 30, recorded its most outstanding season.

With TAB distribution amounting to $102,786 a bookmakers turnover on its 14 meetings at $3.04 million and a record 901 horses contesting races held in the city, Dubbo has really come of age as a leading race club in country N.S.W.

Dubbo rated 8th in TAB allocations for country clubs this year.

It hasn't always been that way.

In February 1976, with President Ray Nolan retiring, Jim Patterson was approached by his longstanding friend, Lyndon O'Donnell, now one of the western district's leading bookmakers, and the then Secretary Mr Alf Sherwin, to stand for Presidency of the Club.

Jim accepted and with many new faces on his committee set out to revitalise the club which although still top club in the Central Western District Racing Association was 'marking time'.

The Patterson program was instant and effective. With ten weeks to the club's annual Easter Two Day Carnival, the club through working bees and some hired help, did an 'instant paint' job, turned a former luncheon room - it was an old army hut - at a cost of $7,800 into a Members' and public bar and relocated the bookmaker rings adjacent to the grandstand and the new bar facility.

The Club also ploughed and resowed the racing surface with kikuyu.

To the surprise of the sceptics the track was in great heart for the running of the Dubbo Gold Cup on Easter Saturday.

The race carried $1,500 prizemoney that year, three years later the prizemoney is $2,200 and thanks to sponsorship from Caltex the meeting is a worthy country alternative to the Randwick Easter Carnival.

Throughout his term at the head of the club, Jim Patterson has concentrated on improving facilities, encouraging owners and trainers and interesting the general public in the sport of kings.

A vital ingredient in implimenting the Club's programme has been livewire publicity officer, Ian McDonald, an insurance inspector, who has worked tirelessly gaining sponsors and devising novel attractions of club meetings. The club became the first club in the area to advertise regularly on television.

With local racing identities appearing in 30 second spot advertisements and a steady flow of local turf 'information' supplied to commentators, an atmosphere of 'Dubbo on the go' has fostered.

The Club actually sold the gate to bookmakers for its December 1977 meeting, allowing free admission to the course for everyone.

It introduced a winning owners bar at which thanks to the co-operation of wine manufacturer, Kaiser-Stuhl, winning owners, friends, and trainers are treated to glasses of champagne and generally made welcome by Committeemen of the Club.

There was also the great novelty event - a donkey race.

Given wide coverage by the media, the race was won by 'Ice Cream' ridden by the daughter of leading Coonamble Trainer, John Lundholm.

The punch line was a natural - 'Ice cream can lick anything'.

The clubs other big meeting of the year is the Martin Whiteley Cup in August and this year it was expanded to a two day Carnival. Featuring the Martin Whiteley Cup on the Saturday, prizemoney $4,500, and the Invitation Stakes on the Monday of $3,500. It was Jim Patterson's last meeting as President and proved a fitting finale to his three successful years of office.

Commencing with a Calcutta evening at the Dubbo RSL on the Friday, a maximum crowd of 400 people attended. With the Calcutta pool swelling to over $6,000 the winning dividend was $4,000. Needless to say everyone had a great night.

The Caltex Easter Carnival has been built into a three day event commencing with a Calcutta on the Friday night, racing on Saturday, a fashion Parade and Barbecue on Sunday and racing again on the Monday.

The race was won the following day by the good Walgett gelding, Bungambra Lad who defeated well performed gallopers, Skidoo and Perky Miss, both metropolitan winners.

On the Sunday prominent Stock Agent, Peter Milling, conducted a successful thoroughbred sale. It is interesting to note that a sale conducted by Peter at Dubbo the previous year saw the purchase of good two-year-old, Bench Mark.

Also on Sunday, the Race Club sponsored a Golf Tournament at the attractive Dubbo Golf Course.

Winners of the fourball competition - first prize goods to the value of $500 - was local bookmaker Noel Teys and Dubbo stock agent and racing identity Bob Andrews.

On Monday it was again to the course for the Invitation meeting.

In all more than half a million dollars was held by bookmakers on the meeting attesting to the popularity of Dubbo as a racing centre.

Jim Patterson's interest in racing stems from his friendship with Rosehill trainer, Dr Geoff Chapman, who in his early medical career, practised at Dubbo.

It was 'Dr Geoff' who talked Jim and three other friends into buying Lord Ben, for $850. The Ruler gelding won over $120,000 in prizemoney.

Dubbo Turf Club statistics tell the story of the Patterson program; Season 1977-78 - 12 meetings, prizemoney $84,070 - 667 starters, bookmakers turnover $2.32 million. Season 1978-79 - 14 meetings, prizemoney $104,075 - 901 starters, bookmakers turnover $3 million. Last year TAB allocation was $71,000 - this year over $102,000.

The club recently has embarked on a course improvement program, made possible by a $160,000 grant from the NSW Racecourse Development Fund. A new aluminium running rail is already installed and a 9 million gallon irrigation dam only awaits consolidation. The club's next project is to provide a new administrative building to include general office, racing officials' room and change and shower facilities for jockeys.

Jim Patterson has stepped down, his successor, Dr Bob Slack-Smith will undoubtedly carry on in the now established mould.

Anyway one looks the outlook for racing at Dubbo is good as with judgement, hard work and unflinching enthusiasm the local Turf Club has put racing on the map in the Macquarie Valley City.

As Jim Patterson sees it, proven performance equals TAB support. With that support the sky is the limit for racing in western NSW.

XMAS NOT FAR AWAY!

Busy and efficient Tattersall's Secretary, Mr Norman Smith is thinking ahead for the Xmas celebrations. He is gathering a grand list of 'goodies' to excite members who attend the special functions of the season.

Last year the giant toys won by members excited many a youngster on Xmas morning.

TATTERSALLS LADIES LUNCH AT RANDWICK

Mrs George Beynon, Mrs Tom Smith and Mrs John McKell, wife of Tattersall's Committeeman.

Efficient Tattersall's Steward Adrian serves champagne to Mrs Keith Moremon whilst daughter Elizabeth looks on.

Chairman's wife Mrs Keith Moremon entertained ladies of Tattersall's Club and their guests at a Chelmsford-Tattersall's Plate day luncheon at Royal Randwick.

Mrs Candy Smith chose a striking felt style hat with her attractive summer racing dress for the Tattersall's day.

WINING, DINING and CLUB NOTES

It was a birthday party complete with a clown for Club Member, JOHN FITZPATRICK.

Mrs Fitzpatrick decided to send a singing telegram to husband John for his 28th September birthday. John is a regular amongst the early birds in the Athletic Department. He was treated to a horn blowing fully dressed clown singing birthday greetings out across the pool waves at 7.30 in the morning. The surprised John was not quite so ceremonially dressed for the occasion!!!

Head Porter Joe Bahari is used to being up and around early each day but was not quite sure if he was awake as he escorted the clown to 'deliver' his message at the pool.

Several dinner parties for family and friends were given by Club Chairman, Keith Moremon and his wife, in the 4th Floor Dining Room culminating in a dinner for a large group of friends on Saturday evening 8th September, which doubled as a bon voyage party for their daughter Sue and a 21st Birthday Party.

Sue left the following day for London to attend the Cordon Bleu Cooking School Diploma Course.

She will celebrate her 21st Birthday in London.

It was a very action packed luncheon with Tattersall's Club Dining Room entertaining Jackson Tsang from Madang. He was well looked after by Jack McLean, John Gallagher, Ritchie Lutvey, Joe Aboud and Gordon Tonkin - they are a really happy group to make anyone welcome.

* * *

Laurie Beaumont gathered a family group celebrating a 21st Birthday for fourth son Michael. In attendance was Mrs L.F. Beaumont, Father Callanan, Tony, Laurie, Stephen and Mary Jane Beaumont and relatives and friends of the family - 'may the man follow in the footsteps of the boy' said one of the Members.

Bert & Win Miller arranged a get together of Warren people to celebrate a Wedding Anniversary of Mr & Mrs Ritch. There was much merriment and laughter in the group. The dining party included Mr & Mrs Whittaker, Mr & Mrs Ritch, Mr & Mrs Cole and Mr & Mrs Aitkenhead.

Member Sam Herford with son Gary Herford and Keith Campbell were delighted to see boxer Tony Madigan in the Club dining room. Olympic rowing and boxing was one of the main topics of the happy meeting.

Live wire Auscott cotton man John Cameron hosted a very pleasant dining party in the Club. Overseas visiting executive Robert T. Inerny was there in very happy style. His warm easy personality makes Bob a delightful man to meet. His visit was a fleeting one as he just had to be back in Sacramento for his wife's birthday. His Australian friend Bill Band was in a very merry mood as Bill said 'Great to have you in Sydney Bob - stay longer next time!'

* * *

Tattersall's Member Wayne Manson freehold owner of Charmhaven Hotel/Motel is a lively young man. The establishment oozes with his personality. Rothman good guys Bill Kelleher, Adrian Mitchell and top ranking ad-man Rick Hertz journeyed to Newcastle to see the running of Rothman's Winfield Cup. Stopover at Charmhaven was made more pleasant by Wayne's attention - all were Tattersall's members in the party too. The Mansons live in a cosy beachside house at Noraville which is close to the scene of business.

* * *

Mr & Mrs David Tarrant celebrated the birthday of daughter Patricia (Mrs Paul Kelly). A club member Mr Paul Kelly son in law and grand daughters Joann and Mary Kelly, the family gathering was very enjoyable. 'You couldn't wish for anything better' said club member David.

* * *

Racing authority Bob Charley, Committeeman of Hawkesbury Racing Club, is really a great man for racing. His sound knowledge added with a flair for getting people interested in the Sport of Kings is excellent. He is a Club Member and uses all facilities of Tattersall's. Keep up the good work Rob!

DOGGONE FLEAS

Like the story about the flea that went into a pub at Penrith, had four double scotches, came out and said "Damn - someone's moved my dog!"

Mr 'Pen' himself popular member, Brian O'Connor and his wife, Nora were very pleased to entertain Mr & Mrs Max Sandow in the 4th Floor Dining Room recently. Mr Barry Garner was in the party and added to the happy evening. Brian, of course, was the perfect host and made his party very welcome in his inimitable style.

Enthusiastic member Bob Cannon was in high spirits in anticipation of $500,000 lottery win. The dinner party was an ideal way for a 38th birthday celebration. Charming Mrs Lynne Hurwood was there too and sparkled with the happiness of the evening.

* * *

Racing identity, trotting man and member Noel Simpson entertained 'Old Nelsonians' from New Zealand. In the party was New Zealand cricketer Sir Jack Newman and Tattersall's members Mr Don Merritt, CBE, Kel Bailie, Doug Freeman and Harry Castles. It was regarded just a 'warm up race' before the Nelson College Old Boys Reunion.

* * *

Harold Cruickshanks and Ron McCall accompanied by their lovely ladies Betty and Kath found a great way to entertain very good friends Mr & Mrs Kevin Scott and Mr & Mrs John Smith in the 4th Floor Dining Room. Harold and Ron are associated in business and it was a splendid way to get away from it all and have fun.

* * *

James Garnsey and his lovely wife Kathleen had a very relaxed friendly dinner party with good friends Otto and Wendy Baldwin plus David and Sue Harvey. It was rated as a wonderful night. Where better to spend such a evening as Tattersall's Club?

SWIMMING SPONSORSHIP

Gerry Wells

One of Tattersall's very active club members, Sam Block for the past quarter of a century has been trying to persuade not only the Government, but banks and large business firms to sponsor both swimming and athletic pursuits by awarding scholarships at our own Universities in an endeavour to prevent the drain of our many Olympic potentials accepting offers from universities overseas.

Until lately he has not met with a great deal of success, however, owing to the efforts of a Tattersall's member Gerald Wells who is Chairman of the City Mutual, one of Sydney's major Life and General Insurance Companies, Swimming has received its biggest boost with a guaranteed sponsorship of $250,000 to be spread over the next three years for a coaching, health and fitness project.

Quoting that swimming being the top Olympic sport in Australia, it is the largest participant sport. City Mutual is aiming to encourage people to swim regularly for their own health and enjoyment. Our Gerry swims and exercises on the Third Floor daily.

The Australian Swimming Union will use the funds to appoint a National Coaching Co-ordinator assisting coaches throughout Australia.

Heres hoping that the example of the City Mutual through the foresight of Gerry Wells will be adopted by other business firms and by so doing render yeoman service to Australian sport.

Popular member John O'Neill and his wife, Lois staged a happy birthday celebration for their eldest son Michael. It was set in the Dining Room. Michael's two brothers, Jack and Pat with sister, Anne helped make it a great evening. We missed Michael's friend's name but he was also pleased to be there to join in the frivolity and fun of the family.

You Can't Snooker Syd Lane Off The Table!

A real working brain and driving force behind the very successful Snooker & Billiard Scene in Tattersall's Club. Syd's attention to detail making every shot a winner in getting the most from the interest packed Tournaments is outstanding.

Many members work in co-operation with him but we must say - 'Keep up the good work Syd - you're doing a fine job!'

NEW MEMBERS

Members wishing to nominate friends who may wish to join are urged to do so before the end of the year.

There are many amenities which make membership attractive. New facilities provide for additional members nominations.

Charming Stewardess Therese Marr is back looking after members in the first floor bar area. She was unfortunate to break a bone which kept her away from dispensing happy drinks. She was made very welcome on her return by Tattersall's members.

It's a happy combination of lasses with Therese, Jackie and Jeanette doing the honours.

HANDBALL NOTES

TATT'S REGAIN TATTERSALL'S PLATE

Tattersall's handballer, Michael O'Dea, proved a worthy representative by winning decisively the 1979 Tattersall's Plate.

Mike's final opponent, Frank Caldwell, this year's N.S.W. State Singles Champion, was no match for Michael in a lengthy contest in which the most tenacious competitor proved victorious.

In the early rounds last years Plate winner, Noel Vella, of Bondi, won handsomely over George Inman of Coogee Giles Club, 31-19. Noel played superbly in this match and he looked to have the form to make the finals again. Jim Campbell, another Bondi representative, defeated Alex Hillston of Tattersall's Club in a tame game 31-23. Frank Caldwell, number one representative of the Tamarama Club had a win at the expense of Tony Brown of Bondi while Ray Hopkins, wearing a Clovelly Club jersey eliminated Tattersall's hope John McGuire in a sparkling display 31-25.

Reg Chappell of Bondi exhausted the patience and power of Ken Glass (Tattersall's) and won 31-26. Crowd pleaser Gary Stubbs (Clovelly) outthit Tim O'Brien (Tamarama) by 31-21 while Neil Rogers of Tattersall's Club proved to be in fine form by leaving experienced Don Hudson (Tamarama) in the lurch to the tune of 31-23.

Tattersall's Michael O'Dea annihilated Nev Halloran of Clovelly 31-15.

The quarter-finals were closely contested with no surprises but the Frank Caldwell - Ray Hopkins confrontation was the most entertaining. Frank started a slight shade of odds on but with Ray leading most of the way and still in front at 29-27 it did appear as though the favourite was a certainty to come undone. But Frank climbed up from the floor and won four consecutive and unbelievable points to earn the umpire's pat at 31-29. The players enjoyed the game equally with the crowd.

Noel Vella won from Jim Campbell who played tigerishly to hold last years Plate winner to a three point margin. Noel won 31-28 in a match where the main interest centered on the eventual winner and not how he played.

Gary Stubbs weaved his own style of magic to dispose once again of Reg Campbell. Reg played well up on his toes but dance as he would, Gary produced all his best shots for a well-received 31-24 triumph.

Although the scores in the Neil Rogers - Mike O'Dea clash favoured Mike 31-14, this event could accurately be described as the closest contest of the semis. Each contender resisted the loss of each point as though it was the decider and few who watched the game considered the score important until it finally became obvious that Neil could just not make up the leeway. It was, however, a game which was not considered finalised until the last point had been played.

The semi-finals produced some sparkling play with Frank Caldwell and Noel Vella appearing to be evenly matched. Frank, however, won in a veritable whirlwind fearlessly outthitting Noel with bewildering pace and placements. Noel, by comparison, seemed to be wearing leaden boots but few handballers can match Frank when he is in such superlative touch. Frank won 31-23 with Noel never getting into the game.

Gary Stubbs had Michael O'Dea done to a turn but Mike miraculously turned certain defeat into a narrow but harrowing victory. Gary went to an early lead on his own serve but Mike gradually made up the leeway to level at 15 all and he was then able to take a slight lead. Mike not only surrendered this tenuous hold on the game but allowed Gary the luxury of a late and commanding vantage when he produced a dazzling display of attacking handball.

Gary's lead of 28-23, while serving, had the crowd expecting an O'Dea defeat but Mike steadied to a walk and contented himself with safety first tactics. It was a stunned crowd who heard the umpire call 28 all. Gary had let the Mayor off the hook! In winning the next two points he regained the ascendancy at 30-28 and it again seemed curtains for the ex-champ.

Again O'Dea dug in, performed the impossible, and won the next four points and the match 32-30.

The final occupied 55 minutes and produced dramatic incidents and a memorable clash.

Down 10-20 at the end of Mike's serve the task must have appeared hopeless and Frank's altered tactics of attack soon became apparent. Michael was soon scooping at balls almost level with the floor while almost every serve was an attempted ace. The rallies became shorter and the added strain soon manifested itself on the contestants.

Frank's play brought repeated applause from the gallery but while he reduced his shortage of points he never once took command of the game. A superb hat trick of aces earned a standing ovation. It was champagne handball by two gallant opponents who had fought out the final in the State Single Championship when Frank had proven his superiority. This night, however, was Michael's and he regained the Tattersall's Plate, his third victory in this event, by 31 points to 24.

SKI CLUB

THE PERISHER CURRY RECIPE

by Tattersall's Snowman

There has been a great deal of discussion amongst members of the Ski Club about the quality and magnificence of the 'Curry' which was enjoyed by all members attending the Bucks Week at Werruna, and, at the insistence of those concerned, together with their friends, we are publishing here the recipe for this. Much of it is a little hard to recall, as the cooks mainly responsible for this creation, were being indulged by their compatriots with frequent replenishments of liquid refreshment.

However, for those souls who are game and willing, here is basically what happened.

Into a very large stewing receptacle was placed some olive oil and brought to a great deal of heat. The oil covered the base of the receptacle only approximately 1/16". Into this was sliced one whole garlic and approximately 10 lbs of chopped steak and lamb and was placed into the very hot oil so that there was much noise and ado and aroma created in the kitchen. Twelve desertspoons full of curry powder were mixed with some red wine to the consistency of custard. Three bay leaves were placed in the curry along with chopped apple, oranges, carrot, raisins and coconut in minute quantities. Six whole large onions were sliced up and placed with the meat as well as eight whole medium size tomatoes, which incidentally, were also cut into quarters. Very little stirring was done - the mixture was literally folded together, then the curry powder added together with two desertspoons full of salt and the consistency of the mix was adjusted by a little more wine.

It was cooked for approximately two hours and then removed from the stove and allowed to mature and cool overnight and was then cooked for another two hours the following day and it was served.

As it is anticipated that another Bucks Week will be taking place in 1980, perhaps those fellows who intend coming on the next one may think of some fairly simple creations, that can be produced with the aid of their fellow skiers, so that same pleasure can be enjoyed as was the case with this 'Perisher Curry'.

Billiards & Snooker

By Syd Lane

Tom Powell, Warren Simpson and George Mousally discussing the quality of a cue. This shot was taken on the 2nd Floor where the Snooker & Billiard action takes place.

Still the favourites fall!!

It is amazing the number of games won by the underdog, which only helps to emphasise the fascination of Snooker so often referred to as 'a blackfella's game'. The most notable of these results was certainly the defeat of Eddie Charlton (2 to 1 on) by Lee Bluett. Lee played splendidly but was still in danger when Eddie potted 6 pinks and looked like continuing the break until he unfortunately knocked the second-last red into a pocket. It was a great match and we all congratulate Lee for a great performance - he really kept his 'cool'. Unfortunately, he was knocked out in the next round by Ross Maybury, one of the outsiders who is playing havoc with the field and is first player to reach the semi-finals. Ross has since been joined by another 'bolter' - Perry Sutton who also came up the hard way, beating Don Storey then Neil Rogers en route.

There is little doubt that to date the most engrossing match of the Tournament was played by Rod Fisher and Clive Milliken both of whom gave us a great display of potting. The match was finally won by Rod who potted the black from an almost impossible position.

By the time you read these notes we will be very close to the finals of both Snooker and Billiards Tournaments and also both the Championships.

ROBERT ANDREW HOWELL, Q.C.

The Passing of delightful member and well respected Robert Andrew Howell, Q.C. was a big shock. Bob served on Tattersall's Club and the A.J.C. Committees with distinction. He was the owner of the outstanding race horse 'Always Welcome'. His untimely sudden death at Randwick Racecourse on Epsom Day was very sad. Bob's gentle, able and warm friendship touched many people - we will miss him. Our sincere condolences go to his wife and family.

EDNA McCAMLEY
(with husband Arthur)

A lovely lady Edna McCamley, wife of committeeman Arthur is no longer around on race days or smiling happily at the staff in our dining room. She was a constant visitor with Arthur to the Club. Edna was a delightful person. She staged a gallant fight against her illness. A large group from Tattersall's, A.J.C. and S.T.C. members paid tribute to Edna at the service conducted at The Swifts, Darling Point.

Bill Allen long standing member - a great Club supporter through the years.

Genial member Sir Clyde Kennedy of S.T.C. fame has employed some great performances by his promising horse "Merryville" which he part owns. May there be many more for you Clyde.

Popular Bill Gordon, Committeeman of the A.J.C. and Tattersall's Member. He is a great worker. You'll get a great welcome from Bill at the races - especially if you are country visitor.

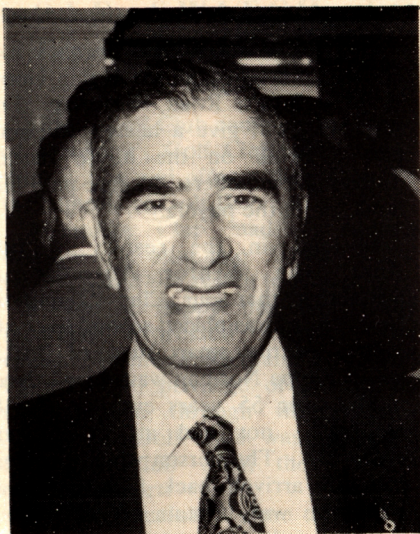

We told top ad man Ken Brown our roving cameraman had caught him in a serious moment. 'Will you make a statement Ken?' we asked - 'Not on your life until I see the photo!' said Ken.

John Vandenberg with his lovely wife are keen Club and race goers.

Nick Solomon a keen racegoer and Club identity.

Ted Wales raises a glass — a well-liked gentleman with a heart of Robin Hood — A horse lover too. You'll have to go North to find him these days.

Stan Swaine key executive officer of the Deaf & Blind Society - the right top man in a demanding position. - Congratulations on the job you do Stanley.

Bookmaker George Rohanna with wife Mary enjoy the Tattersall's Club functions - this shot was taken at an Epicurean Evening.

'That was a terrible shot!' was Arthur Miller's probable expression as he watched one of the many snooker matches in the Club Tournaments.

Legal man and member John Coen caught by surprise - he naturally had the right answer when he recovered. John's a daily visitor to the Club - 'I'll have a Dewars and water please' is one of his favourite opening remarks.

John O'Neill a real Tattersall's Club member of many years — a mecca for all young members.

Ski-Club members enjoying a curry night out at Warruna — it was Buck's Week fun.

Pool Splashes

— Sam Block

Tuesday, the 2nd saw the beginning of the Swimming Season which attracted a rather large number of members despite it being held the day after the holiday weekend.

The swimming events are held during the luncheon hour and we would like to see some of the evening enthusiasts taking part. There are quite a few smart stokers amongst them and if they care to make the effort will be very welcome.

New members are cordially invited to join and swim in the heats which are held every Tuesday and finals on Thursdays. Time trials for handicapping purposes may be arranged with club officials on days prior to the first race, so that there will be no delay in starting the racing.

The pool is just the place for relaxation and sport, and it is confidently anticipated that the coming season will provide a new record in race attendances for the many valuable trophies.

Talking about triers it doesn't seem to matter what's going on, our dandy sports David Dind, David Bruce, Chas Coppa, Derek Jackson, John McClean, Ted Joye and Norm Rogers amongst many others to be mentioned in later issues are always in it up to their eyebrows.

Nice to hear that former Olympic champion Johnny Devitt and young Mark Dowling are both permanently stationed in town, so be prepared for fireworks.

Must get that dapper looking white haired Len Tosh in the swim, he glides through the water like an eel. Wonder if we could persuade that eminent cartoonist George Molnar to swim with us, he strokes through the water reminiscent of Boy Charlton.

Haven't noticed Adrian Abbott doing any training, thought you told me you had designs on Tony McSweeney's Silver Sharpe Trophy, you could land same if you put in some solid work.

Had the pleasure of witnessing the final of Tattersall's Plate between the N.S.W. and Tamarama Champion, Frank Caldwell and Tattersall's Champion Michael O'Dea. It was most interesting to see Michael apply such concentration, forcing his opponent to play as Michael dictated instead of his own forceful game which was his undoing.

The game was played in a true sporting spirit and witnessed by a large crowd of handball enthusiasts. No doubt Peter Ashby will give a ball to ball description in his handball notes.

Congratulations to winner and loser.

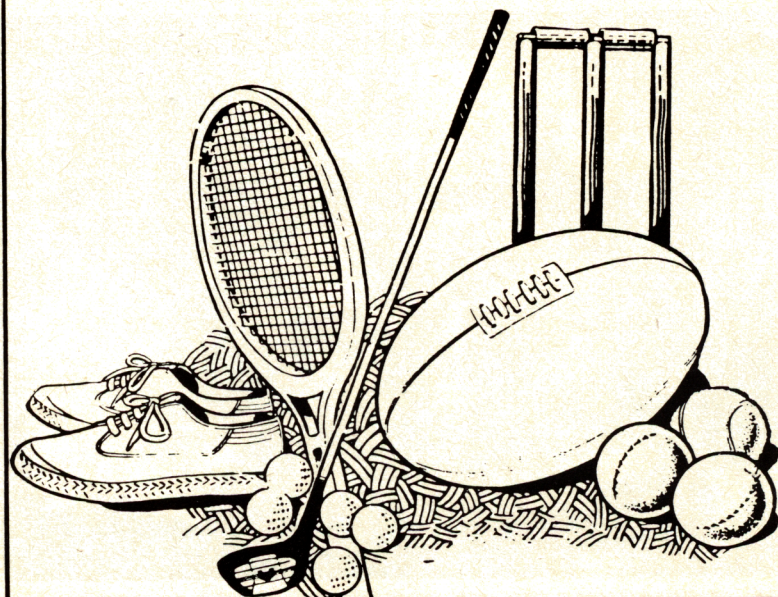

Our genial starter Max Sernack has become mine host of the Robin Hood Hotel in Bronte Road, Waverley. I'm sure Max will give a hearty welcome plus a drink on the house to all Tattersall's members. (A free plug but don't forget the payola.)

Noticed in the results of the Australian Winter Association Swimming that our Club Champion Neil Rogers was placed second over 50 metres in the smart time of 26.22 whilst Poppa Norman was placed third in the over 55 years event in 32.48 seconds - not bad at all for an evergreen. The person who beat Neil has just arrived back from Moscow where he was Captain of the Water Polo Team.

Sad news of the month was the untimely death of a very lovely lady who had been hostess on many occasions at our Presentation Evenings. I refer to Edna McCamley, the charming wife of Club Swimming and Handball Committeeman our own Arthur.

We extend to all concerned the deepest sympathy and condolences in their sad loss. Prior to the commencement of the racing the members of the Third Floor stood in silence paying their respects to one who will be sadly missed by all of us.

GOLF SWITCH TO KILLARA

by Seagull

Killara Golf Club came to the rescue of Tattersall's Golf Club and at very short notice and offered their Club for the September Golf Day.

Australian Club made a sudden decision to eliminate 'Trade Days' which caused the switch to Killara.

It was a happy day and many members expressed relief in the change of venue. We thank Australian Club for the privilege of playing on their course through the years. Tattersall's Golf Club was happy to help this Club when they needed outside support.

The field included some top golfers and some good club golfers. One of the Members said 'The really good golfer remembers his bad shots - but I remember my good ones!' Golf President Bill Hunt partnered by John MacLean accounted for John Cleaver in their match. The Davidson-James combination was too strong for Bob Griffiths and John Johns. Perc Edwards and Vaughan Denehy scored 44 points - accounting for Neill Steglick and Frank Fox. Club personalities and visitors noted around the course included Ray Lenehan, Ern Bacon, Dick Scott, Peter Dind, Bob Elvey, Steven Brown, Don Dunne, Hugh Norton, Wal Hogg, Jock Thomson, Bob Johnston, Brian Corcoran, Col Pearce, Hugh Gage, Ron Everett, Bill Kelso, Ted Punch, Bruce Gillespie, Sid Lodder, Des Gordon. Basil Phillips came in the twilight of the evening with a score of 43, only to find Steve Brown had a 44 - but it didn't take the smile off his face.

Bernie Grellman, a Pymble Golfer and ex-president of that Club enjoyed his golf. His score was not a top one but he was happy with the fun of the day.

Here are the results:

Winner Members'

Fourball: Hugh Norton, Jock Thomson - 46 points

Runners Up

Know Your Bookmaker

H.J.W. LOBB

is a rails bookmaker at all courses. His showmanship at the races attracts betting people to his stand. 'Digger' was one of the first to have his staff giving him on the spot calculations of progressive results. A great Club man, loves the Snooker & Billiards involvement in Tattersall's Club. Go there any day and you'll find him with his many friends.
